

*Center for Research on International Cooperation in Educational Development
University of Tsukuba*

Seminar: “Mathematics and Informatics Education Supported by ICT”

Purpose: To share the information and ideas for Mathematics and Informatics Education Supported by ICT with professors of universities and teachers of schools in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Audience & potential participants: mathematics and informatics educators, in-service teachers, undergraduates/graduates preparing to be teachers, teacher educators, and people involved in curricular development in mathematics and informatics, as well as researchers in mathematics and informatics education.

Date:	Fri October 13, 2006
Time:	10:00 –
Venue:	Multimedial hall: Faculty of Economics, University of Mostar
Program:	Opening The movement for technological innovation in Mathematics and Informatics Education Supported by ICT. Kyoko KAKIHANA (Tsukuba Gakuin University) Environments for technological innovation in Mathematics Education Supported by ICT. Kimiho CHINO (University of Tsukuba) Mathematics and Informatics Education in B&H Ivan PAVLOVIC (University of Mostar – West) The process and results in development of Contents for e-learning. (including activities in B&H) Valentina MINDOLJEVIC (Gimnazija Mostar) Anton VRDOLJAK (University of Mostar) Nadia Bouz-Asal (University of Sarajevo) Closing